Detroit Scores 8 Runs in 8th Inning - Indians Again Take Lead.

By WESTBROOK PEGLER. NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Those poor, disappointed Detroit pitchers suddenly threw a catfit in the eighth inning of teday's game with the Yanks at the Polo Grounds, clawed and 10 to 6 as the final out was made and the calculators began casting up the standing of the clubs. Cleveland now leads the American League by two points, with a figure of .629. The Yankees are .627 and lucky to be there, for the Indians were idle and thus had no chance to increase the

Red Sox Twice Defeat
White; Faber Ineffective

BOSTON, Sept. 19.—Not that it makes much difference to palpitating public at this stage of the season, but the Red Sox took a double-header from the Chicago White Sox today.

In the first game they lammed Thompson and Hodge for sixteen hits and a 6-to-2 win, and in the second won, 3 to 5. Faber went to the mound for the White Sox when the score was tied in the seventh inning of the second game, and was promptly reached for et bits and three runs.—The course of the forenous rune with a 2-3-4, all the first game they long the bits and three runs.—The course of the forenous rune for the White Sox when the score was tied in the seventh inning of the second game, and was promptly reached for et bits and three runs.—The course of the course of the forenous rune for the St. Louis, Clarence was tied in the seventh inning of the second game, and was promptly reached for et bits and three runs.—The course of the course of the course of the forenous rune for the white sore was tied in the seventh inning of the second game, and was promptly reached for et bits and three runs.—The course of the same back with a run of the course of the same thing the outgoing nine with a 2-3-4, all three clamping to put the soft of production hunder trying conditions such an occasion.

If Bobby Jones, who behaved admirably under trying conditions with two out of bounds at the last hole, had done the same thing the uproar would have been terrific.

up three Yankee pitchers and chased the New York club out of first place. Any one could see it was likely to happen any moment. Carl Mays was just lasing along over his customary route, mentally spending his world's series money. Babe Ruth wasn't hitting, but then he had fifty-six home runs to his credit and the other lads were slapping the ball, having driven Oldham out of the nox in the fourth. The Yanks were leading, 4 to 0, as the eighth began. The Yanks were trailing, $ to 5, as the eighth ended, and 10 to 6 as the final out was made and the calculators began easting up the state of the parade.
